UM NIGHT COURSE SCHEDULE CLARIFIED

New evening extension classes for Missoula adults will begin March 28 and end June 9. Beginning dates for individual classes were incorrectly stated in a previous story.

Students will register and pay for courses at the first session of each class. The extension courses are offered at the rate of $8 per credit.

Attendance at the first session of the class is extremely important because if not enough persons are present the course will be cancelled at that time.

Principles of Economics, 3 credits, will meet at 7 p.m., Tuesday, March 29, in Liberal Arts 205. The course is a continuation of principles of economics as offered winter quarter.

Advanced Creative Writing, 3 credits, meets at 7 p.m., Wednesday, March 30, in Liberal Arts 210. The course deals with fiction and/or poetry.

Map Interpretation, 3 credits, meets at 7 p.m. on Monday, March 28, in Liberal Arts 146. Maps and charts will be evaluated.

The Prophets and Their Times, 3 credits, meets at 7 p.m. on Monday, March 28, in Liberal Arts 105. The course deals with the early Hebrew prophets.

Criminology, 5 credits, meets Tuesdays and Thursdays, beginning at 7 p.m., Tuesday, March 29, in Liberal Arts 305. Causation, detection and treatment of crime will be discussed.
